The Bite is Right

Savor the global flavors coming to a 'hood near you.

By Chris Watkins

No time for a sit down supper at Le Bilboquet? Order up bites from Bilbo To-Go!

You can now take the flavors of France home with you, thanks to Le Bilboquet's gourmet to-go concept, Bilbo To-Go. The to-go window will feature healthier items like fresh fruit, pressed sandwiches and, of course, signature French faves like espressos and croque-monsieurs. @le_bilboquetatl

Decatur gets Japanese flair this summer with the opening of Brushstroke Sushi Izakaya. The concept from chef Jason Liang (The One Sushi +, Craft Izakaya) will rely heavily on tradition, with free-range chicken yakitori, in-house pickled veggies and Edomae-style sushi sourced from Tsukiji Fish Market in Tokyo. @brushstrokeatl

Restaurant rock star Ford Fry (The Optimist, JCT. Kitchen & Bar, Superica, etc.) continues his domination of the Atlanta dining scene with forthcoming concept, Marcel. The European-inspired steakhouse will open this summer in the former Abattoir space, featuring craveable USDA prime cuts and savory sides. @cheffordfry

West Midtown taco haven, Bartaco, snuck in a new Buckhead location right under our noses. Expect much of the same vibrant coastal ambience, freshly-squeezed margaritas and pork belly/Baja fish tacos that made it last year's summer sensation. @bartacolife

Small plates and charcuterie take center stage in Midtown at Saltwood. The concept replacing eleven at the Loews Hotel highlights casual, communal dining with housemade and locally sourced meat offerings like pork and duck prosciutto, rabbit terrine and an original twist on Spam. Tasty! @loews_hotels

Fifth Group Restaurants is expanding its formidable fare lineup to the big, bright lights of Buckhead with the opening of the third South City Kitchen. Expect plenty of buttermilk fried chicken and waffles, and shrimp and grits to go around at 3035 Peachtree. @fifthgrouper

West Egg Cafe's new "restaurant within a restaurant" concept Oddbird features a bevy of fried chicken delicacies available Wednesday through Saturday evenings. Guests will go coocoo over chicken and waffles, savory biscuit incarnations and an innovative PB&J chicken sandwich. @oddbirdatl

Billy and Jenn Streck of Midtown faves Cypress Street Pint & Plate and GRAIN plan to open their first solo concept this fall in Inman Park, Hampton & Hudson. The community bar/restaurant will focus on pub grub and a curated bar program, as well as pay homage to the Big Apple and world travels.

New pie options come to Sandy Springs with the opening of Pizza Crosta. The concept from the Buckhead Pizza Co. team will feature fresh ingredients cooked in an open-fire oven with an exclusive dipping station of sauces, spices and oils to finish off your crust. @pizzacrosta

The team of Decatur's Cakes & Ale is bringing the doughy goodness to Inman Park with Proof Bakeshop. Taking no shortcuts in the process of creating their fine breads and pastries, expect a variety of baked-good awesomeness like English muffins, hand pies, macarons and sandwiches. @proofbakesh
